THE MEADOWDALE HIGH SCHOOL

YEARBOOK

Meadowdale High School

Dayton, Ohio

1964

During the past four years Meadowdale High School has grown and matured in many ways, and we, the Seniors of 1964, have taken a definite part in this growth. As freshmen, we helped to lay the groundwork for the clubs, organizations, and traditions of a school. Now, as Seniors, we are a part of Meadowdale, one of the most outstanding schools in the area.

As the first graduates to complete four years at Meadowdale, we have been the recipients of a wealth of unusual experiences. As freshmen we were part of a uniquely unified student body. We were made to feel as much a part of the school as the upperclassmen and thus were willing to dedicate ourselves to making it great.

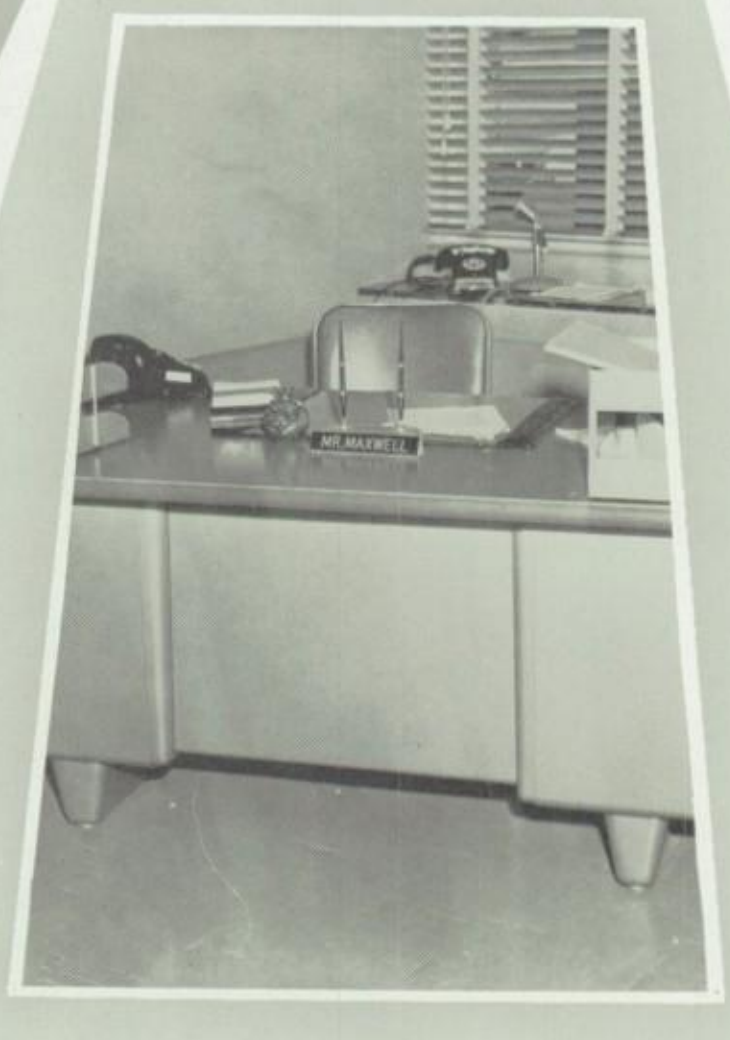
We have felt the satisfaction of seeing our efforts transform a building of brick and concrete into a building that holds some of our dearest memories and experiences. We have been given the chance to see the faculty and administration as people who are interested in our welfare and the welfare of our school, and not just as the unapproachable adults who make the school function properly. And last, by working together with a common goal, we have been able to know each other as individuals.

Our time at Meadowdale has brought to each one of us something different. To the class as a whole it has brought maturity through responsibility and a feeling of pride through accomplishment. As individual innovators and students of Meadowdale, it would be difficult to name the emotions we might have felt. At any rate, as we enter the adult world all of us will definitely be richer in some way for having been a part of Meadowdale High School.

As we have had so many other common emotions while at Meadowdale, so did we share, earlier in the year, the news of the death of the late President Kennedy. This great man was known for his wit and his profound thoughts, and we found that many of his ideas and cogitations are applicable to us in our own personal lives. Thus, all of the passages contained on the pages at the beginning of each section in this book are taken from his speeches or addresses in the hope that they will enrich our lives.

"Our task in this country is to do our best to serve our nation's interest as we see it, and not be swayed from our course by the faint-hearted or the unknowing."

Administration



MR. MAXWELL

In the four years that Mr. Maxwell has had, his tact, understanding, and leadership, coupled with an untiring effort, have made this school a great and inspiring institution.

MR. RESSLER

Mr. Ressler has a big job that requires knowledge and time in many areas. However, his patience, thoughtfulness, and effort have made him irreplaceable.

"We must offer deeds, not words. We need to think through more carefully our own positions instead of offering only proposals which we know in advance must be rejected."

Class History

We are the Class of Sixty Four. Soon these words will be a part of the past, as will be our four years at Meadowdale. We walked into a new school our Freshman year with many challenges and traditions to confront. Our Freshman year was one of excitement because everything we did was done for the first time. The Freshman Class officers were: Pres. Richard Chasman; Vice-Pres. Dorothy Heppeard; Sec. Suzanne Russell; Treas. Jerry Phillips; Hist. Susan Bennett; Sgt.-at-Arms Steve Weber. Our Class Advisor was Mrs. Grant. Some of our activities were the project to sell pencils with the school's name on them, and we should also remember how our class backed up the baseball team in the Cincinnati semi-finals. We will never forget that wonderful Freshman year!

Our Sophomore year began with the election of class officers. They were: Pres. Mike Miller; Vice-Pres. Jim Samson; Sec. Suzanne Russell; Treas. Paul Feinstein; Hist. Susan Bennett; Sgt.-at-Arms Steve Weber. Our class Advisor was Mrs. Cannavan. Our class held its first dance, "Spring and Summer Spectacular," which was a big success. At the school's first Basketball Day, Dennis Edgel represented the Reserve team as a Duke. Also, many of our classmates were highlighted in the school paper, The Lion's Roar. At the Sno-Ball that year, our attendants were Jean Borkenhagen and Dennis Edgel. Our Sophomore year ended with as much spirit and enthusiasm as it had begun!

The Junior year was one of many surprises. The class officers were Pres. Bob Cox; Vice-Pres. Lora Carney; Sec. Joan Horwitz; Treas. Vernon Linderman; Hist. Sandy Henderson; Sgt.-at-Arms Ron Smith. The Class Advisor was Mr. Palumbo. At Meadowdale's first Homecoming, Bob Cox and Jean Borkenhagen were the Junior Attendants. Our first Class Play met with much success because it seemed that everyone was "Wild About Harry." Again our class was represented at the Sno-Ball dance, this time by Ellen Zimmer and Jim Lovelace. Soon it was time to start work on the Junior-Senior Prom. The theme chosen was "Enchanted Evening," and that it was. Everyone who worked on it had a right to be proud. Finally at the end of the year we started to work on the junior skit for Class Day. We hope that the Seniors got a little laugh out of our impersonations of them, for with that, our Junior year ended and we began to prepare for our final year at Meadowdale.

At last it was our turn to complete four years at Meadowdale, which we were the first class ever to do. The officers for that final year were Pres. Bob Roisman; Vice-Pres. Bob Miles; Sec. Karen Neff; Treas. Sol Polachek; Sgt.-at-Arms Jerry Phillips; Hist. Jean Borkenhagen. Our class Advisor was Mr. Anderson. The king and queen of the Second Annual Homecoming dance were Jean Borkenhagen and Chip Johns. Senior attendants were Cheryl Andrasik and Steve Weber. The dramatic events were the Senior Class Play, "Cheaper by the Dozen," and the Mikado, in which many of our seniors took an active part. At the Sno-Ball dance the king and queen were Vernon Linderman and Cheryl Andrasik. Senior Attendants were Ellen Zimmer and Jim Samson. Our basketball team, with its three seniors, did a tremendous job. The team members were Eddie Weaver, Larry McDonald, and Monte Daniel. The final dance of the year, Sweetheart Serenade, was reigned over by queen Linda Glassmeyer and her escort. Also bringing honor to the class was Sol Polachek, who placed very high on a state-wide test and visited Washington D. C.

An outstanding project of our class was the Senior Scholarship Committee. The purpose of the committee was to raise money to give to a worthy classmate who planned to continue in college but who lacked the funds. Numerous bottle drives were held for this purpose and the Committee was successful. All too soon the month of May came and it was time to start the final part of our days at Meadowdale. Those last events will long be remembered; the wonderful Junior-Senior Prom which ended the dance affairs for our Senior year; the Class Day followed by the Baccalaureate with its beautiful Candle Light Service, and then finally, Commencement, the last time we were together as a class.

School Secretary Mrs. P. Rix
Her dedicated effort is truly felt at Meadowdale.

The Last Word

A lot of work goes into the making of a yearbook, but in addition, there are a lot of new and important experiences and ideas to meet and consider. As the editor of this 1964 Yearbook, your yearbook, I am very glad to have had the opportunity to experience these new ideas for myself, for it has proved most interesting.

We are very proud of this book and hope that you too, will enjoy it. However, it would not have been possible without the following people, to whom I am deeply indebted.

Mr. Maxwell, Mr. Ressler, and Mrs. Rix for their understanding and advice
Mrs. Leahy, our advisor, for her patience and encouragement
Mr. Medlar, Paul Brunton, and Boyd Eby, for their fine photography
Logan Studios for their outstanding photography
Terry Hertzinger and Taylor Publishing Company for their technical assistance
My most sincere thanks to the staff, Susan Bennett and Liliane van der Hoeven, for their ideas and assistance.

Ron,
You're crazy but without your classes would be boring! I guess I like ya because
I have gotten used to ya.
Love ya madly.

Dear Jane,

Thank you for your letter. I am very glad to hear that you are all well. I am also very well. I have been very busy lately, but I have had some time to myself. I went to the theatre with some friends and saw a very good play. I also went to the opera and heard some beautiful music. I hope you will come and see me soon. I should like to see you very much.

Your affectionate friend,

John Smith.

Ron,
I'll always remember you and your mouth (Ha! Ha!) Seriously though, good luck (if you don't make your own) Don't drink any more than you can handle (a fifth!) Good luck again,
Patty

Ron,
You a real sweet kid, just stay like you are now and you'll go places. Good luck.

Ronnie,
How could I ever forget you and our Great Biology class. The dissection oh boy!!! Always remember all Mr. D. told us (or should I say taught, we have had a blast. Good Luck in everything you do (as long as it accent) in life.

Best Wishes
Always,
Carolyn
